A beautiful beck surrounded by glacial drumlins that make it a scenic place to fish. It has an excellent population of trout up to surprising sizes, and also offers the opportunity of grayling. With little bankside vegetation the access and ease of casting is excellent.

Restrictions

Fly only, 100% catch and release, see restrictions and advice on tackle and information on how to release fish.

Directions

Heading east into Gisburn, continue along the A59 towards Skipton. After leaving the village and after about 450 yds, there is a small turning on your left with a dead end sign post. Take this turning, keeping right and follow it to the end. Park in the marked space to the right of the farm house.

Biosecurity

Please check, clean and dry your equipment before fishing this river to reduce the risk of introducing invasive species and water-borne diseases. For more information visit www.nonnativespecies.org/checkcleandry
