Fishability ☆☆☆

A picturesque and tranquil beck located in the upper reaches of the catchment above Stocks Reservoir in the stunning Gisburn Forest. The beck offers a lot of variety and contains some excellent pools. 7ft/8ft of 3/4 wt rods are advisable. Anglers can absorb the serenity of one of the catchment's most treasured becks while seeking out its wild brown trout.

Restrictions

Fly only, 100% catch and release, see restrictions and advice on tackle and information on how to release fish.

Directions

From Slaidburn on the B6478, continue for 1.5 miles and turn left at the four lane ends (signposted Gisburn Forest). Heading over the causeway at Stocks Reservoir, follow the road round to the right, up the hill and continue for half a mile before reaching the small car park on the right hand side. Bottoms Beck is a half-mile stroll through the forest from the car park.

Biosecurity
